Dear Nicole Sellers \.

After many considerations about your current insurance policy's terms and conditions, this document is in response to your ongoing demands for the revised terms to our Legal Auto Claims Policy, CC12DA80-6787-4870-93A0-3DD2DFA7590E.

Below are the details and the different subsections of the revised Legal Auto Claims Policy:

Policyholder Information and Policy Period:

Address: 1893 Bryan Mews Apt. 139,

Pattersonstad, GU 60183

Email: zgill@example.net.

Policy Period:

Start Date: 1972-8-6

End Date: 1973-4-20

Policy Number: CC12DA80-6787-4870-93A0-3DD2DFA7590E

Premium Amount: $140,901

Subsections:

1. Automobile Liability Insurance: This section of the policy covers damages inflicted on another party during an accident or any other related incidents.

Exclusions: Damages caused to a family member or to property previously damaged before the policy's terms and conditions began.

Limits of Liability: $300,000 (bodily injuries per person), $500,000 (bodily injuries per accident), $100,000 (property damages per accident), and $1000 (property's actual value).

1. Automobile Medical Payments: This section of the policy, also known as Personal Injury Protection (PIP), covers medical costs for injuries by any means to you or the passengers in a covered vehicle.

Exclusions: The costs associated with any procedure performed with no medical necessity.

Limits of Liability: $50,000 (medical payment per person), $150,000 (medical payment per accident), $7500 (funeral expenses).

1. Automobile Debt Indemnity Insurance: This section of the policy covers your debts with banks or financing companies.

Exclusions: A non-covered event may cause the financial obligations.

Limits of Liability: $25,000.

1. Uninsured Motorist: This section of the policy covers damages caused by a driver with no insurance or lacks sufficient coverage for damages.

Exclusions: The other party having valid insurance at the moment of an at-fault accident.

Limits of Liability: $10,000 (property damage), $30,000 (per person), $60,000 (per accident).

1. Default Provisions: This section of the policy refers to the conditions where you could stop complying with the terms of your contract.

Exclusions: DWI, intentional vehicle damage.

Limits of Liability: $5,000.

1. Personal Injury Protection: This section of the policy covers the different damages that may result from a covered vehicle's use.

Exclusions: Mental damages outside a medical necessity.

Limits of Liability: $10,000 (per injured person), $20,000 (per covered accident).

1. Collision Insurance: This section of the policy covers property damages during an accident.

Exclusions: Accidents involving an animal.

Limits of Liability: $10,000 (per cover accident), $500 (per damaged property).

1. Comprehensive Insurance: This section of the policy covers accidents and other problems not related to a collision during an accident.

Exclusions: Theft, vandalism, or any other intentional actions performed by you or other parties involved in the insured vehicle's care.

Limits of Liability: Per accident $25,000, per covered accident $1000 (per damaged property).

1. Rental Reimbursement Insurance: This section of the policy covers the cost of a rental during a covered accident.

Exclusions: You are late with the insurer's payment.

Limits of Liability: $60 per day.

1. Towing and Labor Coverage: This section of the policy covers tow and labor costs when your car breaks down within five miles from your house due to a mechanical breakdown or a covered accident.

Exclusions: Damages caused by a collision or another insured event.

Limits of Liability: $100 per occurrence.

1. Waiver of Deductible: This section of the policy refers to any deductible you won't have to pay if an event falls under a condition that triggers the deductible's waiver.

Exclusions: Accidents where you were at fault.

Limits of Liability: $100 per occurrence.

For any further information or questions regarding the updated policy details, please feel free to contact our official contact information: Donald Bow